Legislative Reference Bureau Library, State Capitol, after researching the Legislative Journals for the Senate and House of Representatives, Territory of Hawaii and State of Hawaii, since 1959, advised that the name of PATSY MINK appeared as a member of the Territorial House of Representatives for the 1957-1958 Legislative Session and as a member of the Territorial Senate for the 1959 Legislative Session. She further advised that the 1963-1964 Legislative Journal showed that PATSY MINK was a member of the Senate for the State of Hawaii for that session. Also, in checking the Legislative Journal for 1955, PATSY MINK's name appeared as a "House Attorney" for the Territorial House of Representatives for the Legislative Session of 1955. No exact dates for the above services of PATSY MINK were shown.

[redacted] Archives, State of Hawaii, advised after searching his files that he could find no exact dates which would indicate the services of PATSY MINK in the Territorial or State Legislature as a House Attorney. His records indicated only as did the Legislative Reference Bureau Library for sessions in which PATSY MINK was involved. b7C b6

Governor GEORGE ARIYOSHI, State of Hawaii, advised he has known PATSY MINK for a number of years and worked with her when both were representatives in the Territorial Legislature. He stated she is a woman of much strength and speaks out on her beliefs very forcibly and is an able legislator. He advised he knows of nothing which would adversely impede the character or reputation of PATSY MINK and believes her to be a very loyal American to the American form of government. He stated he has had personal differences with PATSY MINK in the past, but these in no way reflect on her ability, and he thinks she would do a good job in the current Federal Administration of President CARTER and would so recommend her.

JOHN USHIJIMA, President, Hawaii State Senate, advised he has known PATSY MINK since approximately 1954 and has been a coworker with her in the Hawaii Legislature. He stated she is a person of unimpeachable reputation and possesses fine personal traits as to character, associates, and loyalty. He knows of nothing whatsoever which would be in any way derogatory concerning her appointment to a position of trust and confidence in the Federal Government.

JAMES WAKATSUKI, Speaker, Hawaii House of Representatives, stated he has known PATSY MINK when they had adjacent law offices back in the mid-1950's and also as a comember of the Hawaii Legislature. He considers her a person of exceptional ability and knows of nothing which would reflect adversely on her character, reputation, associates, or loyalty. He recommends her highly for a position in the CARTER Administration.

DONALD D. H. CHING, Democratic Majority Leader, Hawaii State Senate, advised he has known PATSY MINK for many years and stated she is a very able legislator and attorney. He stated she, at times, was very liberal and outspoken on liberal issues which were not at all times the same as his views. However, he respected her for speaking her opinion regardless of possible public outcry. He stated he knows of nothing in her background which would be an embarrassment to her or the CARTER Administration and recommends her for a position of trust and confidence.

WADSWORTH YEE, Republican Minority Leader, Hawaii State Senate, advised he has known PATSY MINK since about 1946 when they were both law school students together and since as a legislator in the Hawaii Senate and a congressman for the United States Government. He stated she is very outspoken in her views, which at times tend to be liberal. However, he considers her a very able-bodied lawyer and legislator. He stated he is unaware of anything in her personal background or attitudes which would reflect adversely on her personally or the CARTER Administration and would recommend her to any position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

This source began by stating that PATSY MINK has always appeared to him to be a very bright, and a very dedicated member of the Congress. She likewise has given him the impression that she has a very excellent grasp of the work of the Congress. He likewise emphasized that no adverse information of any kind has ever come to his attention which would cause him to question her moral character, reputation, loyalty to her country or her choice of associates. However, he is aware that she is being considered for a top level appointive position of trust at the Department of State which will bring her into contact with Representatives of the nations pertaining to the Pacific Basin in her capacity as a representative of the U. S. Government. This source has what he described as being a "gut feeling" that perhaps because of her ethnic background, Mrs. MINK might possibly be inclined to favor the interests of the smaller nations of Asia over the interests of her own country in a given international nature involving controversy among the nations of the Pacific Basin. He emphasized that he is in possession of no information that would substantiate this belief. It is merely an opinion on his part. It is believed further that a thorough background investigation of the appointee would either establish or disspell this opinion that he holds toward the appointee. He again stressed that Mrs. MINK has never done nor said anything that would lend substance to his feelings toward her.

Because of his personal feelings towards the appointee, this source would prefer that she not be placed in a position wherein she would represent U. S. interests among the nations of the Pacific Basin.

The Honorable THOMAS P. O'NEILL, JR., Massachusetts, who is the Speaker of the House, advised as follows:

Mr. O'NEILL has known the appointee, former Congresswoman PATSY MINK, on a close personal and professional basis ever since she first took her seat in the House as the Representative from the Second District of Hawaii in January, 1965. He described Mrs. MINK as being an extremely hard worker and able member of the Congress who is widely respected and admired by her colleagues in the House. In addition, she is a very charming person who will make an excellent representative in the field of Foreign Affairs. In this regard, the Speaker is aware that Mrs. MINK is being considered for a top level position at the Department of State. He emphasized that it is his strong belief that Mrs. MINK will well and ably discharge the duties of such a high office. While a member of the Congress, she was noted for her fairness in handling legislative matters pending before the Education and Labor Committee as well as the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee of which she was a member. For this very reason the Speaker believes that she will likewise be fair and impartial in representing the interests of the U. S. in all matters that will come before her at the State Department. She will likewise engender goodwill for the U. S. by her fair and straight forwardness in dealing with other nations.

The Speaker reiterated the high esteem that he has for the appointee and emphasized that no adverse information of any kind concerning her has ever been brought to his attention. He concluded by giving Mrs. MINK his highest recommendation for a responsible appointive position of trust.

Representative PETER W. RODINO, JR. of New Jersey, who is the Chairman of the House Committee on the Judiciary, advised as follows:

Mr. RODINO began by declaring that he endorses PATSY MINK without reservation for a high responsible position of trust in the Congress administration. The appointee has earned an excellent reputation among her colleagues in the Congress as she is hard working and a competent member of the Congress. She is likewise an individual of absolute personal integrity and he stressed that no adverse information of any kind as to her country or moral character has ever been made known to him.

Mr. RODINO is likewise aware that Mrs. MINK is being considered for a responsible appointive position at the State Department and he strongly believes that she will make an excellent representative of the U. S. in her dealings with foreign nations. He concluded by repeating his strong endorsement of Mrs. MINK for a position of trust and confidence.

Representative CORINNE C. (LINDY) BOGGS of Louisiana, advised as follows:

Mrs. BOGGS advised that she has known the appointee, former Congresswoman PATSY MINK, as a colleague in the Congress for approximately the past four years. She noted that the appointee enjoys an outstanding reputation among her peers in the Congress and is expert in the field of education. In this regard Mrs. BOGGS stated that she, herself, would frequently call upon Mrs. MINK for advice and counsel on legislative matters pending before the Congress relating to the field of education. Mrs. BOGGS went on to say that she and Mrs. MINK were part of a Congressional Delegation that visited the People's Republic of China and she had an opportunity to judge the appointee away from the environment of Washington. The appointee has always conducted herself in a very commendable manner and her personal demeanor and integrity would make her an excellent representative of her country.

She emphasized that Mrs. MINK is a person very much dedicated to her country and to the work of the Congress. No unfavorable information of any kind has ever been brought to her attention concerning Mrs. MINK and highly recommended the appointee for a position of trust.

Representative JOHN M. ASHBROOK, of Ohio, Minority Member of the House Education and Labor Committee, advised as follows:

He has known the appointee both as a colleague and as a professional associate for approximately the past two years. He described her as being a very hard working individual who established a superb reputation for herself among the members of the Labor Committee. He described her as being a person of integrity, competency and diligence. No unfavorable information of any kind has ever been made known to him and he concluded by recommending the appointee for a responsible position of trust.

Representative CLEMENT J. ZABLOCKI, of Wisconsin, advised as follows:

Mr. ZABLOCKI has known and worked closely with PATSY MINK ever since she took her seat in the 89th Congress in 1965. He described her as being an outstanding member of the Congress who is widely respected by her peers. He praised her moral character, patriotism and personal integrity and noted that no adverse information of any kind has ever come to his attention concerning her. He too, is aware that she is being considered for a top position at the Department of State as a ranking member of the House Committee on International Relations. Mr. ZABLOCKI strongly believes that Mrs. MINK will make an excellent representative of her country in the field of foreign affairs. He concluded by strongly recommending her for such a position.

Representative JOHN B. BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky, b7C advised SA [] as follows:

Mr. BRECKINRIDGE was first elected to the 93rd Congress and took his seat in January, 1973. He has known and worked closely with PATSY MINK ever since that time. He described her as an outstanding member of the Congress and as a person whose loyalty and personal integrity are above reproach. She is a direct, honest, and fair minded person, who would make an excellent representative of her country in the field of foreign affairs. She is a very well informed and intelligent individual and was noted for her expertise in the field of education. He spoke in a most complimentary manner concerning her character and ability and recommended her for a responsible position of trust.

Representative RICHARD BOLLING, of Missouri, has known the appointee ever since she was first elected to the Congress. He firmly declared that he strongly supports Mrs. MINK for a responsible appointive position of trust and spoke most complimentary in his remarks relating to her moral character, integrity and patriotism. He concluded by repeating his endorsement of Mrs. MINK for a responsible position of trust.

Representative LLOYD MEEDS, of Washington, who is a reference for the appointee, advised as follows:

Mr. MEEDS has enjoyed a close personal and professional relationship with former Congresswoman PATSY MINK for approximately the past three years. He described her as a "fantastically capable person" who is widely admired and respected by her colleague in the Congress. Mr. MEEDS noted that he and Mrs. MINK have worked closely together on various legislative matters pending before the House Committee on Education and Labor over the years and was most complimentary in his statements pertaining to Mrs. MINK's expertise in the field of education.

He restated the high esteem in which he holds Mrs. MINK and emphasized that no adverse information of any kind concerning her moral character, patriotism or associates have ever been made known to him. He too is aware that she is being considered for a top position at the Department of State and he heartily endorsed her for such a position.

Representative WILLIAM FORD of Michigan, who is also a reference for the appointee and a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor advised as follows:

Mr. FORD began by stating that he worked with Congresswoman MINK during the 12 years that she was a member of the Congress. He described her as being a very polished and cultured individual who possesses a fine intellect. Mr. FORD is aware that Mrs. MINK is being considered for a responsible position of trust and believes that she is entirely suited for such a position. He stressed that no adverse information concerning her character, associates, reputation and loyalty has ever come to his attention concerning Mrs. MINK and he recommended her for a responsible position of trust.

It is to be noted that Representative JAMES J. HOWARD

Associates in the House of Representatives

The following interviews were conducted by SA [redacted] on 2/23/77.

Representative CECIL HEFTEL, Hawaii, advised as follows:

The Congressman has known the appointee, former Congresswoman PATSY MINK, on both a personal and professional basis for approximately the past 12 years. He described the appointee as being a very able and conscientious individual who performed in an excellent manner as the Representative of the Second Congressional District of Hawaii. The appointee possesses a very fine mind and a very strong concern for both social and ecological values.

Mr. HEFTEL is aware that the appointee is being considered for a responsible appointive position at the Department of State. In this regard, it is his belief that she possesses a great deal of administrative ability and would handle a top executive position in a very capable manner. He likewise commented favorably concerning her moral character, reputation, patriotism and associates. Mr. HEFTEL concluded with a strong recommendation that Mrs. MINK be favorably considered for a responsible position of trust.

Representative DANIEL K. AKAKA, Hawaii, advised as follows:

The Congressman has known PATSY MINK on both a personal and professional basis for a number of years. He described her as being an extremely capable individual who is forthright and honest in her dealings with others.

He took note of her long and distinguished service in the Congress as the Representative of the Second Congressional District of Hawaii and in this regard, he emphasized that she was an excellent representative of the people of Hawaii. She has a great deal of concern for her constituents and is likewise noted for her compassion and consideration of people in general.

He too spoke very favorably of the appointee's moral character and integrity. He emphasized that no adverse information of any kind which would in any way cause him to question the appointee's patriotism or associates has ever been made known to him. The appointee is a woman very much dedicated to her country and to the betterment of all mankind and she would, therefore, perform in an outstanding manner in a high appointive position of trust. He concluded with a strong recommendation for such a position.

Representative ROBERT J. CORNELL, Wisconsin, advised that he, himself, was first elected to the 94th Congress and knew PATSY MINK as a colleague in the Congress. He likewise served with her on the House Committee on Education and Labor. The Congressman emphasized that no adverse information of any kind concerning Mrs. MINK was ever brought to his attention and he knows of no reason not to place her in a responsible position of trust and confidence.

Representative TENO RONCALIO, Wyoming, advised as follows:

The Congressman began by stating that he has already recommended former Congresswoman PATSY MINK to President CARTER for a top appointive position of trust in the Department of State. He first came to know Mrs. MINK in January of 1965 when she first took her seat in the 89th Congress as the Representative of the Second Congressional District of Hawaii. He described her as being a very dynamic individual who speaks her mind on the issues confronting the Congress. The Congressman emphasized that there has never been any question in his mind concerning the appointee's total and absolute dedication to her country. He likewise praised her moral character, reputation, loyalty and associates,

He went on to say that the appointee, in his opinion, would perform in an outstanding fashion as a Representative of the United States Government in dealing with foreign nations. She has handled and dealt with people from all walks of life, everyone ranging from longshoremen in Hawaii to top officials of both our Government and foreign governments. He concluded by reiterating his strong endorsement of Mrs. MINK for a responsible position of trust.

Representative M. ROBERT CARR, Michigan, advised that PATSY MINK was the Chairwoman of a subcommittee on which he also served. He described her as being a very excellent and talented administrator who is widely respected by her colleagues in the Congress. He enjoyed a professional association with Mrs. MINK during the entire 94th Congress and spoke favorably of her character, reputation, loyalty and associates. He concluded with a recommendation for a responsible position of trust.

Representative PAUL SIMON, Illinois, advised that he too has enjoyed a professional association with PATSY MINK as a colleague in the Congress. He described her as being a "quality person" who enjoys the respect of her peers in the Congress. He also noted that he served with her on the House Committee on Education and Labor. He praised her moral character, reputation and patriotism and recommended her for a responsible position of trust.

Mrs. SHIRLEY CHISHOLM, New York, advised as follows:

Mrs. CHISHOLM began by stating that she usually is reserved in giving recommendations to people. However, in the case of PATSY MINK, she strongly recommends that the appointee be placed in a responsible position of trust at the Department of State.

She noted that Mrs. MINK is widely respected on both sides of the aisle in the House.

Mrs. CHISHOLM has known and worked closely with PATSY MINK ever since she, herself, was first elected to the Congress. She described Mrs. MINK as a very knowledgeable and serious minded person of excellent moral character and integrity. The appointee is very much devoted both to her country and to the work of the Congress. She concluded by restating her strong endorsement of Mrs. MINK.

Representative JOHN F. SEIBERLING, Ohio, advised that he too has recommended PATSY MINK to the White House for a responsible appointive position of trust. He enjoyed a close professional association with Mrs. MINK in the Congress for a period of approximately six years and has the highest regard for her character and integrity. Her loyalty to her country is absolutely above question and he too restated his endorsement of Mrs. MINK for a responsible position of trust.

Representative GOODLOE E. BYRON, Maryland, likewise has known the appointee as a colleague in the Congress and stressed that no adverse information of any kind concerning her has ever been brought to his attention. He likewise knows of no reason not to recommend her for a responsible position of trust.

Representative MARILYN L. LLOYD, Tennessee, advised that she too has enjoyed a professional association with PATSY MINK as a fellow member of the Congress. She praised her moral character and patriotism and noted, in addition, that Mrs. MINK is a person of absolute integrity. She is of the belief that Mrs. MINK will make an excellent representative of the United States Government and strongly recommended her for a responsible position of trust.

Interviews

A *congressman who requested confidentiality and who knew Mrs. Mink the entire period she was a member of the United States House of Representatives described her as very intelligent and dedicated in her work. He emphasized he has no adverse information of any kind concerning her reputation, character, associates, or loyalty. However, because of a "gut feeling" and "perhaps because of her ethnic background" he believes she might favor small nations in Asia over the interests of her own country. For this reason he would prefer she not be placed in any position wherein she would represent the United States interests among nations in the Pacific Ocean Basin.

Spark M. Matsunaga, United States Senator from Hawaii, advised in Washington, D. C., he has known Mrs. Mink on a professional and social basis since 1952. He described her as loyal, capable, honest, and trustworthy. He recommended Mrs. Mink for a position of trust and confidence.

Daniel K. Inouye, United States Senator from Hawaii, advised in Washington, D. C., he has known Mrs. Mink on a professional basis since 1954. He commented favorably regarding her character, associates, reputation, and loyalty. He highly recommended her for a position of trust and confidence.

William D. Ford, United States Representative from Michigan, in Washington, D. C., advised he has known Mrs. Mink professionally and socially for twelve years. He described her as a very cultured individual who possesses a fine intellect. He stated her associates, character, and reputation are excellent. He highly recommended her.

Lloyd Meeds, United States Representative from Washington, in Washington, D. C., advised he has enjoyed a close personal and professional relationship with Mrs. Mink for the past three years. He described her as a "fantastically capable person" who is widely admired and respected by her former colleagues in Congress. He commented favorably concerning her character, reputation, associates and loyalty. He highly recommended Mrs. Mink.

Peter W. Rodino, Jr., United States Representative from New Jersey, in Washington, D. C., advised he has known Mrs. Mink for many years and stated she earned an excellent reputation among her former colleagues as a hardworking and competent member of Congress. He advised he has never heard any adverse information concerning her. He stated he has never had any reason to question her character, loyalty, or associates. He highly recommended Mrs. Mink for a responsible position.

Patsy Takemoto Mink

Thirty-nine additional persons, consisting of current and former professional associates, present and former neighbors, references, and social acquaintances of Mrs. Mink's, were interviewed and they advised she is a loyal American whose character, reputation, and associates are above reproach. She was described as intelligent, capable, honest, and forthright, and as a tireless worker. They highly recommended her for a position of trust and responsibility. Those acquainted with her close relatives advised they are reputable individuals.

pone their special order requests to another day.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I hope we will not have an attendance problem. I cannot say. I hope we will not have an attendance problem. I hope that, once we have disposed of the economic stimulus appropriations bill, we can continue our action on amendments to the code of ethics measure.

ORDER FOR RECESS FROM TOMORROW UNTIL 11 A.M. ON FRIDAY NEXT

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business on tomorrow, it stand in recess until 11 a.m. on Friday next.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, on Friday, upon the disposition of the act making economic stimulus appropriations, the code of conduct measure would automatically be back before the Senate, would it not,

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

APPOINTMENT BY THE VICE PRESIDENT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Vice President, pursuant to Public Law 86-380, appoints the Senator from Delaware (Mr. Roth) to the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

ORDER FOR H.R. 3437 TO BE HELD AT THE DESK

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that H.R. 3437 be held at the desk pending further disposition.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

WAIVER OF THE CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT WITH RESPECT TO CONSIDERATION OF S. 1025

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of Senate Resolution 121, waiver of section 402(a) of the Congressional Budget Act with respect to consideration of S. 1025, to amend the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 to increase the amount authorized to be appropriated for the Securities and Exchange Commission for fiscal year 1977.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The bill will be stated by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 121) waiving section 402(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 with respect to the consideration of S. 1025.

objection to the present consideration of the resolution?

There being no objection, the resolution was considered and agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That pursuant to section 402(c) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the provisions of section 402(a) of such Act are waived with respect to the consideration of S. 1025. Such waiver is necessary because the need for the additional funds arose after May 15, 1976. The supplemental request, transmitted to Congress on January 18, 1977, covers the pay increase which went into effect in October 1976, and additional funds needed to complete the modernization of the automated data processing and record system of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

S. 1025—SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION AUTHORIZATIONS

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I understand that Calendar No. 48, S. 1025, has now been cleared for action by unanimous consent, now that the waiver has been disposed of.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Is this correct? Mr. BAKER, Mr. President, it is correct. We are cleared, pending only the adoption of the budget waiver, which was just done. We have no objection to proceeding with its disposition.

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, I would just ask the clerk to transfer Calendar No. 48 to the Unanimous Consent Calendar, so that it will be there on tomorrow.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That will be done.

PROGRAM

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, the Senate will convene at 12 o'clock noon tomorrow.

After the two leaders or their designees have been recognized under the standing order, the Senate will resume the consideration of the pending measure, Senate Resolution 110. The pending question at that time will be on the adoption of the amendment, as modified, by Mr. SCHMITT, on which there is a time agreement of 1 hour. There will be rollover votes throughout the afternoon tomorrow and late into the day.

RECESS

Mr. ROBERT C. BYRD, Mr. President, if there be no further business to come before the Senate, I move, in accordance with the previous order, that the Senate stand in recess until 12 meridian tomorrow.

The motion was agreed to, and at 6:31

MARCH 24, 1977, at 12 meridian.
